ORTLAND, TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1887 AN ILL-ADVISED PROPOSITION

A bill has been prepared at Salem, whereof copies have been received here, for "an act to provide for compiling, illustrating, electrotyping, printing, binding, copyrighting and distributing a state series of school text books and appropriating money therefor. It is proposed that the state board of education shall compile, or cause to be compiled, for use in the con chools of the state, a series of books, consist ing of air readers, one speller, two arithmetics, one grammar, one history of the United Etsles, one goology of the state, two geographies, and ench other books as the board may consider necessary. The printing it to be done at the state printing office, and the sum of $10,000 is to be appropriated for compiling the books, and the further sum of $10,000 brang for the necessary stereotyping or electro-typing apparatus for producing them, and the books are to be furnished at actual cost price, oneh requisitions of county superint books; that publishers of the school books we make large profits that these profits ought to be kept in the pockets of our people that publication of the books at home would create and spatialn an important industry, and that we get a series of books, written and compiled here that will better suit the wants of our

THE OREGONIAN regrets that the face, as it views them, will not allow it to support t dition to publish a state series The maknot books has risen to rank both of a sections and of an art. Hence it requires special emperience, special facilities and special skill it is not too much to say that it would not be andhia to produce here a series of school books of which, put in comparison with Kastern work, we would not be utterly ashamed. If we indertake to publish a series of school books we hall pretty certainly get a hasty and shabby impliation, without much literary merit and willy lacking in artistic excellence. The science and art of making school books have been car fied to so high a pitch by great publishing houses in the East as to make it im ossible to broduce work here that could be put in compar m with theirs The special facilities necessar or for production of a good series of school be the cannot be created by legislative flat. Only purished enterprise, with no under the direction the special knowledge t blanable from 10. rianes, with command of very large to ea inclinding skilled writers, designers, en gavers and the specialities of modern appara-tus and unschloser, managed at every stage of, workmen who make speciations of the particular feranches in which they are employed, can give lt. Hence we can no more make be: series of school books that will compare with work produced by the App styne, for example than the illustrated monthless produced have will compare in artistic workmanship with Rarper's or with the Ce dury magazine. nook of this day must be attractive, as a Should the state publish a series of subrol books, all the books now in use would necosa... order, an the boars how it uses would fall upon our people in one way or another it would fall upon parents, or upon the state treasury. There would simply be a change of books, with loss of stock now in the hands of our children, and sertain substitution of inferior books for better There would be grave doubt, too, as to whether anything would be gained in cheap-ness. We should, in fact, expect that the series hed by the state "at actual cos higher than those now in use. In a short time THE OREGONIAN will submit some statements in support of this opinion. It would be strange, indeed, if the great publishing houses of the E +1, having the whole country for their mar tet, could not produce school books at less cost than the state of Oregon can produce them at, THE OREGONIAN in making the confident pro diction that if the state undertakes to publish a teries of school books the attempt will be a codes and statutes and court reports, but we

MARITE AND REVENIE LEDUCTION

We need not go far to see why the South in surplus revenue by taking the internal revenue Since the war the coal, fron and marble mores of the South have been enormously developed.

Southern mining capitalists are just as so hab and as cunning as Northern capitalists and they see that our present far if enables the u to de clare relatively a more extravagant di tiend surning and still that it that the tariff is not high erough. The Philadelphia Times ad nots that the time is not far die ant when coal and irou will be shipped cheater from Aid than than from any Northern state. Judge helios anva that the South pays the same wights in the same wind of employment as repair in Lennaylyania that it costs $2 to tring tog ther the soil from and limestone in Alabana-instead of a is in Pennsylvapia to make at not pig iron that land costs years—the and hat capital sign ing in from the North—The planters in Alabana and Tennessee complain because the developant of manufacturing industries in Alab ima as diverted colored laborers from the lils and plantations to the mines in creased the rates of wages, and so im posed additional burdens up n those who cultivate the land Northern from manufacturers who are caudid admit that the South will uit mately outrun the North in this industry They are content to-day with making only low grade iron, but sell all they can make at the same prices Pennsylvania and Ohio get for the same quality They do not yet make enough to supply the demand, but the time is coming when the demand, but the time is coming when the South to its facilities for cheap production will add the Northern improved methods of manufacture, and when that day comes Penn sylvania and Ohlo will make more money to transfer their iron plant and capital to Alabama Of course, with increase of iron and coal pro duction at the South and the drift of Northern manufacturing capital thither there will be an increased protection sentiment in that section. The same cuming cry of protection to American labor? will be raised there as here, with a ilar result, according as the bouth changes from a section chiefly agricultural in its interests and sepirations to a country of increased manu facturing pursuits. Steel ralls are now sold in this country for $10 more a ton than they were two years ago, while the increase in the wages of the workmen have advanced but $... 0 per ton. The capitalist pockets $7 80 per ton, giving him, on a million and a half tons of steel rails produced annually in this country, a gain of ever $10 000 000 out of the advanced price as The capitalist's share of protection. This great sum is divided among the owners of eight steel rail mills, and it looks very much more like proction to canital and monopoly than to American labor The advance in prices for pig from and steel rails has enabled the foreign product to compete successfully in our markets with the compatic article, despite the duty of $17 a ton on rails and a high tariff on other forms of iron product, and the advance in price has not been

office, and the advance in price has not been lowed by any appreciable or proportionate tance in wages, for the greatest increase in heen in these very industries which are sup-posed to be protected by the highest tariff rates, and the laborer, with this decreased production, is no better off. The proposition of the Ran-dail protectionists to abolish the tax on tobacco and 'spirits for certain uses' ought never to prevail. The tobacco tax produces $28 000,000 of revenue and is borne only by those who are of revenue and is borne only by those who are able or willing to use this luxury. What the people want is not free rum or tobacco and it would be an enormous outrage to cambel $23, 000 000 of tobacco taxee, and not make ciothing, nails, coal, lumber, sait and other necessaries of life theaper. To cut off the to-bacco tax will not reduce the cost of living to those with whom life is a bitter struggle.

TWO IMPORTANT THINGS

Legislative authority is required both for the lease of the O R. & N company's lines to the Union Pacific and for the construction of a rull way bridge over the Willamette river at Port land These are two very Important things for Oregon Portland is not alone interested in them, they are of general interest to the state. The advantages to accrue to the business of Oregon from a continuous railway line across the continent under one management are great, and we trust that if a legislature will authorize the lease A raliway bridge at Portland, as part of the scheme to facilitate both local and through traffic, would bring benefits that would not be confined to Portland, but would be general to The Union Pacific is ()regon's direct line

It seems to THE OHEGONIAN that there are many and strong reasons why this lease should be favored by the people of Oregon When the bill comes up for final consideration we shall present some of them. At present we have only remark that authorization of the lease bridge seems clearly to be demanded by the

They sent their canoes up to Oregon City last Saturday, and on Sunday morning they went up as far as Milwaukie on the Sellwood, and from there took to the mitroad for Oregon City Each having been kindly furnished by Mr Bran it with a time table and a switch key, they made the "run" to Oregon City in about two hours. It is not necessary to remind any one who was awake Sunday forencon that it mined, and rained bard. After dailying with a bectsteak for an hour or so they went abourd their canoes and started for home. It continued to ram. Their paddles and the raging stream carried them along in fine style, except when they occasionally got into an eddy and where each canoe was whirled around like a button on a wood shed door. They, however, made very good time and arrived at Ia Chapelle's beathouse in one hour twenty three minutes stricen and three-tenths seconds from the time they left to egon City, and each landed as wet as a shag and as cold as colarity.

CADET CORPS OBGANI/ED—In pursuance to special orders from brigade headquarters, dated January 14, an enthusiastic meeting of public school bors, between the ages of 16 and 20, was held tast night at the high school building, for the purpose of organizing a cade militia company Capt. Chas F Beebe of Company K, O S M, presided Fifty young men signed the official paper and enlisted for three years. The company was named the Cadet corps, 2d bat tailon, Oregon state militia. An election of officers was held with the following result Capt. R. K. Warren let Lieut, Wm. Pomnoy, 21 Lieut, Russell E Sewall The non-commissioned officers will be appointed in a few days. After the election Capt. Beebe put the corps through a short drill, and complimented them on the profidency they had made in the short time thes had been informally organized. ABOUT THE PROPOSED ARMORY—It will be emembered that some weeks ago the county pourt bought a block near North school with court bought a block near North school with the intention of building thereon an armory and a jail, or both under one roof. However, the companies will not get an armory unless a better law governing the millita is passed by the legislature. If the county is to establish an armory, it will tasks on having some compensation therefor. Strictur regulations governing the milita will have to be enacted and on forced. There are four excellent milita companies mexistence here—three in Portland and one in East Portland. The fifth company is not worthy of the name, yet it receives the same sum from the county every month that is paid to the worthy companies. It is not proposed to make the armory a club room for idders, but an armory in its true sense.

THE GREEN MOUNTAIN MINE-Mr R. A. THE GREEN MOUNTAIN MINE—Mr R. A Jones, one of the owners of the Green Montain mine, seventeen miles from Gleonade, on the O. &C. road, is in the city. He brought with him, for the Portland Reduction works, 105 prunds of probably as rich gold quartz as was ever seen in this country. The white quartz is literally studded with gold. It is estimated that the 105 pounds will turn out at least $5000 From one pound of ore the owners recomity obtained $11.5 do. The Green Mountain mine is owned by Mesers, R. A. Jones, A. S. Whiting, Stellar Riddle and W. C. Wilson, of East Portland. The ore is free milling. They are down 100 feet and have four tunnels. There are $500 tone of ore on the dump, which it is expected will average $50. A young man named Dewey owns an extension of this mine.

SLIGHT DAMAGE TO STREETS -An inspection of the streets and sewers since the storm shows that damages have been very slight. The most serious is the wash ng out of the Gaines streat fill on Hood street, where near 2000 yards of earth have been washed out. At the south end of Urat street bridge the fill made by Mr. Mar quam slid against the piles which support the roedway, and pushed one of the piles from onder the cap, but did no serious damage. There is nothing in the way of damage to sewers worth reporting. As soon as the accumulated rubbles was cleared away from the traps they carried off the water in good shape. It is seidom that they are put to such a test as on the occasion of Sunday's rain storm.

No DESTITETON AT ONWEGO—Mr Henry (ann. the postmaster at Gawego, wishes The OSF OFLAN to state that an item published in an evening paper in regard to some residents of that town being in a starving condition is alto gether incorrect. He says there was a child sick there and the neighbors did pracure a dot for and render assistance. The father of the child is a drunken, dissipated fellow, who came to Portland during his child is liness and got drunk and lost his money and brought homeonly a few oranges. It is true there are some people in Oswego who would be glad to get work, but they are not starving.

RUNT BARGAIN—The horse-trading case of Peter Kallich vs. Charles Schmid came up before Judge Tuttle yesterday morning and was taken under advisement. The gist of the matter is that two men traded horses. Kallich subsequently finding that his bargain was a had one, attempted to trade back again, but Schmid stable. Hence the suit. Late in the afternoon Schmid had Kallich arrested on another charge of trespass.

The sale of reserved seats for the 1 mma Abbott opera engagement next week began yesterday morning and continued with unabated interest throughout the day. It is unquestionably the largest advance sale that has ever been recorded in the bistory of theatrical events in Portland and speaks well for this eity as a good supporter to even the most expensive of entertainments. Finance Abbott will be greated at every netformance by an audience that will test the capacity of the New Market theater and it is probable that even standing room will be at a premium. The report of Hon, R. P. Earhart, as secretary of state, from Jinuary 1, 1885, to January 1, 1887, is just from the printer. It is a large look of 1 in pages of principally tabular matter, says the **Vaterman*, and shows the exact condition of the state's finances. From it the following figures are taken. The delinquent taxes from the counties of the state amount to $67, 864 08. Of this amount $830 is charged to Marion country, but it will probably be credited by act of this legislature, as it is for taxes due prior to 1868. It shows the bonded debt of the state to be $1,565 40, and containing warrants $53, 822 08. Reduction in state debt since December 14, 1884, was $102,700 94 since September 1, 1878, $761,083 05. It shows the condition of $15.2, which is the only found which was courdrawn up to January 1, 1887. The number of warrants the two years was $000, against .502 drawn during the two years was $000, against .502 drawn during the former two years and three months. There were $50 con panies filled articles of incorporation between December 1, 1884, and December 1, 1886. The report contains statistics gleaned from the assessor's returne of the various counties, the roster of officers in the state militia, and many other things of interest in relation to that office. It is a clear and comprehensive report.
